In a game no more than 3 players below 28 years in the playing 11.
Remaining 8 players should be 29 years and above

Youth Player

Below 28 Years players to be identified on match sheet with a “Y” denoting Youth Player

Cut-Off Date for Youth Player Classification

The cut-off dates are YTD measure. In other words, for a player to qualify as a 28+ player, he has to completed 28 years of age on the day which the game is being played.

Twelfth Man Rule

Why the 12th Man Rule?

Meant to encourage participation and improve the quality of game

No reason required to substitute

Captains to be judicious in the use of 12th man

Guidelines

- Player replaced by the 12th man cannot leave the field before the end of the game
- If one of the 12 players leaves the field or does not take to the field, he cannot bowl until he returns and fields for the same number of overs that he was off for.
- Similarly, if during the first inning, any player leaves the field during the last few overs, he cannot come in to bat until the same numbers of overs have been bowled.

What the 12th Man Can Do ?

- Can field
- Can bowl

What the 12th Man Cannot Do?

- Cannot Keep wickets
- Cannot Bat

Team Profile & Player Update

Toronto City Cricket Club
Season 2018

About Your Team

Toronto Legends came into being in 2017 with an intent to bring in like minded individuals with the sole aim of enjoying the weekends playing recreational cricket. Win or loose is an outcome of the day. However the club's motto is to have fun, relax and replenish your inner energy. Additionally we encourage all our team members to play hard, party hard and maintain the decorum of the gentlemen's game at all times.

The team constitutes a bunch of passionate cricketers from various walks of life who are well placed in their professional careers. This is the second year of Legends existence.
